Dear Mrs Chandramouli,

Acknowledging your support for Peter Mac – Honour Board Listing

It is an exciting time here at Peter Mac.

In recent years, there have been great technological achievements in cancer research, and the pace of discovery is accelerating. It is inspiring to see how much progress we have already made in fighting this disease.

The team at Peter Mac would like to thank you for the role that you have played in helping to make these new discoveries possible. Your generous contribution to Peter Mac's work is already helping to support the hundreds of Australians who will face a cancer diagnosis every day.

I would like to publicly acknowledge your contribution by including your name on the list of donors we wish to honour at the Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre. The donors' honour board listing is highly visible to visitors to the hospital, and it highlights a select group of generous donors who have made a significant contribution in helping us discover new ways of treating cancer and caring for cancer patients.

Should you choose to be acknowledged for your support, you will also be featured on the Peter Mac website for one year. Financial information will not be disclosed.

I have enclosed a confirmation form, which you can use to either confirm how we should acknowledge your gift, or nominate that your support for Peter Mac should remain anonymous. Please return your confirmation form via the reply paid envelope or email to foundation@petermac.org by 15 October 2014. Unfortunately, responses received after this date cannot be added to the 2014 donors' honour board listing.

If you have any questions regarding Peter Mac acknowledging your support publically, please do not hesitate to contact the Foundation on 03 9656 2700 or via foundation@petermac.org.

Thank you once more for helping to fight cancer. Your contribution offers new hope to people and their families facing this disease. Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Carl Young

Dear Tara,

I am writing to thank you for taking action to support the purchase of the Scalp Cooling Machine at Peter Mac by raising funds through Disha Annual Dinner Dance.

As you may know, more than 120,000 Australians will be diagnosed with cancer this year. In fact, I'm sorry to tell you that within the next five minutes alone, someone will face the words 'you have cancer'. But while it is distressing to know that so many families will be faced with a diagnosis, people like you offer real hope to every person with cancer.

The $37,000 that was raised through the Disha Annual Dinner Dance will purchase Peter Mac's first Scalp Cooling Machine. Thanks to the support of Disha, patients undergoing chemotherapy will have an opportunity to avoid losing their hair during treatment. With your passionate support, Peter Mac can ensure that we provide the best patient care.

Disha, the impact of your support for the purchase of the Scalp Cooling Machine at Peter Mac cannot be overestimated. I congratulate you on a fine fundraising effort, and thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Carl Young
Fundraising Director
